ABOUT

(559) 903-4555 jackiealdern@gmail.com

Hi! I'm a CA-based post-production editor and creative producer working in independent cinema, internet content, and immersive experiences. I'm forever seeking new collaborations and playful applications of serious technology. I have a wide range of experience up and down the production pipeline, and sideways into other creative practices. In my spare time, I'm a semi-retired contemporary dancer/aerialist and an amateur gardener. Tell me about your plants!
